

This year, Schofield Middle School will celebrate Nevada Reading Week March 22-26, 2010. Students and staff will participate in a variety of activities that celebrate reading. The highlight of this year's celebration will be a visit by nationally famous author, Brandon Mull. Mull is the author of the Fablehaven series and The Candy Shop War. Both of these books were nominated for the Nevada Young Reader Award and are popular with Schofield students. The author will give a presentation on Monday, March 1, in the Schofield Library from 2:30 pm to 3:30 pm. Seating will be limited and students will be able to obtain tickets for the event in February. This is an incredible opportunity for students to learn about the writing process from a New York Times bestselling author!

Other scheduled events for "Nevada Reading Week"

- *Scavenger Hunt: Students will have the opportunity to win bookstore gift certificates by correctly identifying Schofield staff members' favorite books
- *Book Drive: Students and staff are especially asked to donate gently used books during this week. These books will be distributed to students at at-risk schools throughout the district.
- *Dr. Seuss Birthday Party: students will have the opportunity to participate in a Dr. Seuss Birthday Party simply by donating books to the book drive.
